

BERWICK FREEMEN

APRIL NEWSLETTER

SUMMER TRIP

This year's summer trip is to Durham on 7th July. We will meet with the Durham Freemen who will give a tour of their Town Hall followed by lunch and a visit to a place of interest. Please contact Arthur on 332120 by 23rd June.

The bus will leave the Castle Hotel at 9.30am and will return approx. 8pm, after stopping at the Cook and Barker for High Tea.

The cost for the day is £10 per adult £5 per child payable on the day.

RIDING OF THE BOUNDS

The Riding of the Bounds will take place on Tuesday 1st May. A bus will leave Chapel Street at 11.30am, to take Freemen around the bounds, followed with a meal served in the Town Hall. This is open to all Freemen and partners, widows, daughters and sons. Please show your support to this Freemen tradition. It is a great opportunity to meet with fellow Freemen and families. Please contact Arthur Herriott on 01289 332120 before 23rd April if you wish to go.

FREEDOM CEREMONY

The next Freedom ceremony will be held in the Town Hall on Tuesday 10th April at 11.30am. There are 5 claimants; Duncan Cairns, Sarah McGonigle, Joanne Weatherburn, Rebecca McQueen and Stephanie McQueen. Please come along and show your support to the new Freemen.
